

True Sport

The True Sport course for all 2017 Canada Summer Games athletes is now available!

All athletes attending the 2017 Canada Summer Games are required to complete the True Sport Clean 101 e-learning Course. This course will provide athletes with necessary and valuable information about: ethical sport, the prohibited list, supplements, steroids and doping control.

Athletes will work through all modules of the online course, then complete the True Sport Clean Quiz to receive their certificate. This course is untracked, so it is the responsibility of each athlete to show a copy of their certificate (which is their proof of completion) to their coach/manager.

Each team (coach/manager) will collect ALL certificates and send them to their Mission Staff.

If your team is not finalized, any athletes that may be attending the Games should take the course (this is a great learning opportunity for all athletes). There is no cost to this course.

Athletes have until May 31st to complete the True Sport Clean 101 e-learning Course.

Teams must forward all athletes' certificates to their Mission Staff by June 5th.

The Course can be accessed at the following links:

Please contact your Mission Staff if you have any questions.

Frequently Asked Questions:

What if I took this course already?

- This will be accepted IF you are able to provide a certificate of course completion (must be this course), with a date of later than June 1, 2016. This certificate will have to be presented to your coaching staff.

What if I've taken something similar?

- Unfortunately, you will need to still complete this version of the course, as it is required for all Canada Games athletes.

Are coaches/managers required to complete the course?

- No. We do encourage coaches/managers to take the course, as it provides a great deal of valuable information.

What happens if I do not complete the course?

- If the course is not completed, you will not be permitted to participate in the 2017 Canada Games.
